Future earning capacity by looking at historical capacity assessments which are often poorly valued. CRCs are uniquely proud to present a practical and in-depth guide to earning capacity assessment. The International Association of Rehabilitation Professionals (IARP) is the professional association for rehabilitation counselors. The book covers: • A historical perspective. • Precertification. • Ethical and practical issues of communications with employers. Rehabilitation counselors frequently are Certified Rehabilitation Counselors, Certified Vocational Evaluators, and ABVE members. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee. The payment of fees for vocational rehabilitation counselors or DFEC experts is not currently considered to be an allowable fee.