to answer these questions is through reflection and prayer. Each year this holy season falls more and more into the realm of the usual routine and less about Lent should be about living the Gospel every day. The way to answer these questions is through reflection and prayer.