Everyday Resistance in the Plantation South

Stephanie M. H Camp

Closer to Freedom: Enslaved Women and Everyday Resistance in the Plantation South

Stephanie Camp was an American feminist historian. Her book, Closer to Freedom: Enslaved Women and Everyday Resistance in the Plantation South (2004), was the first book to focus on the daily resistance of enslaved women. Camp examines the ways in which enslaved women used their everyday activities to resist oppression and maintain their dignity.

