Examining THE Secondary Schools OF Wales 1896-2000

W. Gareth Evans; Robert Smith; Gareth Elwyn Jones

Examining THE Secondary Schools OF Wales 1896-2000 is a comprehensive study of the history of state secondary schools in Wales from 1896-2000. Based on the research of Dr W. Gareth Evans into state secondary schools in Wales from 1896-2000, this volume provides a detailed analysis of the development and changes in these schools over the century. The book covers the period from the establishment of the Education Acts of 1880 and 1891, through the introduction of competitive examinations and the development of modern secondary education in Wales. It includes an examination of the role of Welsh in the curriculum, the impact of the First World War, and the post-war period of reconstruction and modernization.

This volume is based on the research of Dr W. Gareth Evans into state secondary schools in Wales during the 20th century, based on documents that Examining THE Secondary Schools OF Wales 1896 2000 would not have access to. It provides a rich source of information for researchers and historians interested in the history of education in Wales.
