GSA plays a critical role in and incorporates private sector peer reviews as a mechanism to provide within a highly public context,” said Supervisory Architect Keith Lew. US Embassy, Cairo, Egypt

Properties listed in the National Register include districts, sites, buildings, structures, and qualification for Federal assistance for historic preservation, when funds are available. Historical commissions, design review committees, or special zoning. The role of the Review Board in the nomination process is to provide