Frederic Edwin Church

Frederic Edwin Church - Artworks - The Athenaeum

Frederic Edwin Church was the son of a wealthy man whose considerable assets provided the youth with the means to develop his talent. He was also a world traveller, and spent much time in Europe. Families that founded Hartford, Connecticut, were the son of a wealthy man whose considerable assets provided the youth with the means to develop his talent.

Frederic Edwin Church was active/lived in New York, Connecticut / Mexico. Frederic Edwin Church was active in New York, Connecticut / Mexico. He was a member of the American School of Landscape Painting and was a central figure in the Hudson River School. His works, large resolution images, ecard, rating, slideshow and more! One of the largest Frederic Edwin Church images online. A Country Home, thumbnail of Above the Falls, from the American Side ? Frederic Edwin Church ? c. 1865. Frederic Edwin Church, Posters and Prints - Discover the perfect print, canvas or photo for your space with Art.com. Philadelphia Museum of Art - Collections Object: The Voyage of the Icebergs: Frederic Edwin Church's Arctic Masterpiece. By Eleanor Jones Harvey. New Haven and London: Yale University Press.

Frederic Edwin Church was born in Hartford, Connecticut, in 1826. He was a central figure in the Hudson River School of landscape painting. He was also a world traveller, and spent much time in Europe. Families that founded Hartford, Connecticut, were the son of a wealthy man whose considerable assets provided the youth with the means to develop his talent.