WASHINGTON -- Jeb Bush isn't even an official presidential candidate yet, but he's already facing a serious challenge to his candidacy -- and it's coming from one of his own brothers.

Jeff Shesol writes that the legacy of President George H. W. Bush must include the fact that he failed to confront the right-wing of the Republican Party, which led to the rise of Donald Trump. "Bush was a pivotal player during a time of great change, and his legacy is one of both success and regret," Shesol writes.

George H.W. Bush, from Emmy Award-winning producer Austin Hoyt (Reagan, Eisenhower, Victory in the Pacific), reveals Bush as a pivotal player during a time of great change, and his legacy is one of both success and regret.
