Housing And Regeneration: A Guide To Policy, Law, And Practice

Ian Doolittle

The focus of the Housing and Regeneration course is on the social, economic, legal and finance, housing management practice. Effective approaches to regeneration and reducing health inequalities at neighbourhood. Avoidance of a variant on the 'inverse care law' – the 'inverse focuses on turning policy into practice at all levels of ... The evaluation findings of related initiatives, discussed in this section, provide lessons to guide local strategy.