Translation: Light over the Scaffold and Cell 18: The Prison Letters of Jacques Fesch, executed on October 1, 1957, age 27. Augustin-Michel Lemonnier presents Light over the Scaffold: Prison Letters of Jacques Fesch, executed on the month I was born in 1957, killed a policeman. Light upon the Scaffold: prison letters of Jacques Fesch, executed on October 1, 1957 at the age of 27. His appeal for pardon was eventually rejected and on October 1 of the same year, six months after his trial, Jacques Fesch was executed for the crime of murder. He was twenty-seven. I am currently reading a book called Light Over the Scaffold and Cell 18: The Unedited Letters of Jacques Fesch. He was executed in France for the murder of a police officer on October 1, 1957 at the age of 27, a crime he never claimed to have converted.
