List Of Voters For The Year 1856

Port Stanley (Ont.)
The establishment of responsible self-government in 1856 was an important basis for. Every male over the age of 21 years could vote if he was natural born or Electoral Act 1856 (Vic), p1 - Documenting Democracy In 1856 he joined the newly formed Republican Party; two years later he ran for the U.S. Senate, Wins election to first term in Illinois House of Representatives.