Making A TV Series

Alan Trussell-Cullen; Graeme Biddle

The 13 Rules for Creating a Prestige TV Drama -- Vulture
Make a TV Show provides educational material to assist people with the creation of television shows. 3 Ways to Make Your Own TV Show - wiki
How to Create a TV Show has become a guidebook for making a TV show. It is a comprehensive guide to creating your own TV show. The book includes information on how to write a TV pilot, how to find a producer, how to find funding, and how to get your show on the air.

Make a TV Show provides educational material to assist people with the creation of television shows. The book includes information on how to write a TV pilot, how to find a producer, how to find funding, and how to get your show on the air.

About the Book

Make a TV Show is a comprehensive guide to creating a television show. It includes information on how to write a TV pilot, how to find a producer, how to find funding, and how to get your show on the air. The book is divided into three parts: Writing, Producing, and Marketing.

Part One: Writing

The first part of the book covers the process of writing a TV pilot. It includes information on how to structure a TV pilot, how to write a compelling script, and how to present your ideas to a producer.

Part Two: Producing

The second part of the book covers the process of producing a TV show. It includes information on how to find a producer, how to find funding, and how to get your show on the air.

Part Three: Marketing

The final part of the book covers the process of marketing a TV show. It includes information on how to promote your show, how to build an audience, and how to sustain your audience.

Make a TV Show is a comprehensive guide to creating a television show. It is a must-read for anyone interested in creating a TV show.