Medieval Lives: Eight Charismatic Men and Women of the Middle Ages

Norman F. Cantor

Medieval Lives: Eight Charismatic Men and Women of the Middle Ages. A unique perspective on history in which eight extraordinary medieval men and women of the Middle Ages are depicted as charismatic figures. Cantor, a professor of history, sociology, and comparative literature at New York University, presents rich and engaging portraits of these influential individuals.

This book offers a fascinating look at life in the Middle Ages through the lens of eight extraordinary figures: six men and two women. Cantor, a professor at New York University, provides detailed biographies of these influential people, offering insights into their roles and their impact on society.

The Middle Ages were a time of extraordinary men and women, and Cantor brings these figures to life in this book. Through a combination of biography and history, Cantor explores the lives of these individuals and their roles in shaping the Middle Ages.

This comprehensive biography of eight extraordinary men and women of the Middle Ages offers a unique perspective on this period of history. Cantor, a professor at New York University, draws upon a wealth of historical sources to provide engaging and enlightening portraits of these influential figures.