Philip Trusttum — Paper-Works

Philip Trusttum is one of New Zealand's most recognised contemporary painters and is represented in all major public and private collections within New Zealand. His paper-works exhibition at the Wallace Arts Trust is a comprehensive overview of his 50-year career.

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.

Philip Trusttum — Artist Profile

Philip Trusttum is known for his distinctive style, characterized by bold use of color and dynamic composition. Born in Raetihi, New Zealand, in 1940, Trusttum graduated from the University of Canterbury School of Fine Arts in 1964.

Trusttum's work has been featured in numerous exhibitions and collections, both in New Zealand and internationally. His paintings are held in many public and private collections, including the National Library of New Zealand.

ArtFacts.net Philip Trusttum

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.

Philip Trusttum — National Library of New Zealand

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.

Philip Trusttum — Artists' profiles

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.

Philip Trusttum — 17 Oct 2011

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.

First, I especially wish to thank Philip Trusttum for his patience, interest and accommodation provided during the exhibition preparation process. This exhibition, titled 'Paper Works', presented over 150 works including prints, drawings, and new works.

The exhibition included an overview and analysis of a selection of Trusttum's work from the 1970s to the present. It showcased a range of mediums, from oil on canvas to lithography and etching.