REFORMING FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR: Andreas Bergmann

The Purpose of Public Sector Financial Management. The New Zealand public sector financial management system aims to:

- assist the Government to translate its policies into practice
- be held more accountable

Budgeting and financial management are at the core of economic and public sector reform programs in most nations around the world. With the growing focus on improving the efficiency of government decision-making and the increasing need for transparency and accountability in public sector operations, there is a growing emphasis on the role of financial management in public sector organizations. This is the first of a two-part series on financial management concepts, methods, and standards currently in use in the public sector more generally, and in the New Zealand context.

Address to the Challenge of Change: Driving Governance and Accountability. CPA Forum 2004. Financial Management in the.. Public Sector. The World Bank Board of Directors approved an International Development Association program to improve the effectiveness of public sector financial management under the spotlight. This is the first of a two-part series on financial management concepts, methods, and standards used in the public sector. It is adapted from Public sector financial management systems and practices in developing countries.

Public Sector Financial Management Reform Support N/A. Overview: This two-day course covers both the financial management systems and...