The Cord Cemetery: History And Tombstone Inscriptions

James Garry; Ireland) Old Drogheda Society (Drogheda

books.google.comhttps://books.google.com/books/about/The_Cord_Cemetery.html?id=UJwWAAABAAJ&utm_source=gb-gp&utm_medium=reader_bk
There are two pages of Byrne inscriptions in James Garry’s The Cord Cemetery. This tomb was placed here to the memory of Mr. Charles Byrne late of Dyer Street by his widow. The largest online collection of gravestone inscriptions in Northern Ireland containing over 50000. Graves and memorials relating to the United Irishmen in Ulster.