Muslim World Map (a distribution) - Islam 101 Founded in 1911, and sponsored by Hartford Seminary since 1938, The Muslim World Map is a distribution project of the Muslim World League. It is intended to provide an accurate and reliable map of the Muslim world. The map is updated regularly to reflect changes in the Muslim world. It is available in various formats, including digital and printed versions. The map is designed to help people better understand the geography and demographics of the Muslim world. The map includes information such as the location of major Islamic centers, the distribution of Muslim populations, and the political boundaries of Muslim countries. It is a useful tool for those interested in learning about the Muslim world and its diverse geography and demographics.
