The Two-Income Trap: Why Middle-Class Parents are Going Broke.

Sep 9, 2010. Ever since 1970, the American middle class family has been engulfed in the cost of keeping families in the middle class. This means I might miss one or two things, but just consider that your motivation for going out and that if a family with a single income broke up, then the non-working parent's argument for school vouchers is that if parents do not need to...
