Head Injury, Age 3 and Younger-Topic Overview - WebMD Nov 11, 2015. Traumatic brain injury (TBI) is one of the leading causes of acquired disability and death in infants and children. Falls and motor vehicle accidents are the leading causes of acquired disability and death in infants and children. The signs and symptoms of mild traumatic brain injury may include: In a child with traumatic brain injury, you may observe: Change in eating or sleeping patterns, irritability or withdrawal. If you are caring for a partner, spouse, child, relative or close friend with TBI, Pediatric Traumatic Brain Injury - BrainLine.org TBI is a major cause of death and disability in the United States: Emergency. New Concepts in Treatment of Pediatric Traumatic Brain Injury Following an injury, it can be hard to tell the difference between a mild traumatic brain injury (concussion) and a more serious brain injury. Watch the child Traumatic Brain Injury Center for Parent Information and Resources Aug 3, 2015. Researchers looked at 113 children, ages six to 13, who suffered from traumatic brain injuries (TBIs) ranging from a concussion that gave them...