Women As Leaders In Education: Succeeding Despite Inequity, Discrimination, And Other Challenges

Jennifer L. Martin

Jennifer Martin - University of Mount Union working in higher education, Dr. Martin worked in public education for 17 years. Dr. Martin is the editor of the two-volume series Women as Leaders in Education: Succeeding Despite Inequity, Discrimination, and Other Challenges. Racial Battle Fatigue: Insights from the Front Lines of Social. - Google Books Result patriarchal forms of leadership. In J. L. Martin (Ed.), Women as leaders in education: Succeeding despite inequity, discrimination, and other challenges, volume